The How To Series:

Brother Teamer wants to bring hundreds of new souls to Christ by 2020. Are we as individuals equipped with the know-how of doing our part? This will serve as a four-part series on how to bring up Christ in daily conversations, how to invite friends to worship, how to properly use scripture to answer questions and how to answer the questions that typically come up regarding the Church of Christ.

(Mark 16:15-16, Matthew 9:37-38, Corinthians 9:22, Romans 1:16 and Luke 19:10)

Faith without works

Millennials, GEN X and GEN Y are often considered the lazy generations. We are stereotyped as "not working hard" and "wanting instant success." We are more optimistic than older generations (there are studies to back this). But according to Biblical principal, is this thinking of absolute faith misguided? This class will tackle bridging the generational gap and better communication within the church.

(Malachi 4:5-6, Proverbs 11:21, Psalm 112:2, Psalm 71:18, Ephesians 6:1-9)

Leading by example

The Bible says we should be Christ-like and lead by example (1 John 2:6). In today's world, how do we communicate daily and is our communication/social imprint Christ like? Are our social media pages reflections of our walks of faith?

(Psalm 19:14, Psalm 37:30, Proverbs 12:25, Proverbs 25:11, Matthew 12:37)

Re-imaging Christians:

In Trump's America, some of the most vocal Christian communities and figures have aligned themselves with Trump and his policies. For those outside looking in, it makes many Christians look like hypocrites. How can we as individuals be more vocal Christians and better examples of a Christ-like walk within our own communities. Reinforcing our identity within Christ.

(John 1:12, Ephesians 1:5, Romans 15:7, Colossians 2:9-10, Romans 6:6)
